

Frank Blair on his way to speak in Central Pennsylvania.

SERRATTS CASE.

The late Delmar expose of the financial situation.

Special Dispatch to the Louisville Journal.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.

General Frank P. Blair arrived here this morning, and, after meeting a few of his intimate friends, left for Silver Springs to spend the day with his father.

He declined a public demonstration, but his enthusiastic admirers were anxious to get up for him. He left to night for Pennsylvania to speak there.

MORE TROOPS FOR TENNESSEE.

The detachment of three companies of the Twenty-third Infantry, who have been on duty in Virginia, has been ordered to Tennessee. The removal of these troops leaves only 1,500 in Virginia.

GORDON GRANGER.

General Gordon Granger leaves to-morrow to resume his command in the Department of the Cumberland. He will have command of the United States troops in Tennessee during the absence of General Sherman.

Who is expected here to-morrow as one of the members of the Court of Inquiry in Tyler's case, which is set for Monday next. This easily deranges the radical plan, with Browder in charge of the militia and Thomas commanding the United States troops.

Radicals deemed Tennessee "safe," but they now say that the satisfaction felt by the "loyal people of the country" at the considerable number of soldiers sent to the Department of the Cumberland is wholly neutralized by the fact that Gen. Granger goes there to command.

SERRATTS.

Mr. Serratts having assured the Department of the Cumberland that he would appear to answer any indictment which the grand jury may find against him, the powers that be have decided not to issue another warrant for his arrest, but to await the action of the grand jury at the next term of the court.

INDIANA.

Advices received at the War Department and at the Indian office say that the Indian war is assuming fearful proportions. The Department of Indian Affairs is doing all in its power to bring about a truce, and the manner in which the war has been conducted since it has begun, call for severe reprobation. But the lives and property of citizens are being sacrificed, and nothing, compared with the manipulation of the Southern States for radical goals.

ADJUSTMENTS.

Fifteen storekeepers and nine gaugers were appointed assessors for the purpose of appointing it would seem that in a short time the people in the country will be internal revenue officers. The salaries paid to these myriads of officers materially lessen the revenue.

CHASE.

Chief Justice Chase is here, rusty and ponderous. He is unusually receptive politically. It is surmised that the action of the New York Court of Appeals somewhat dampened his ardor in the Democratic cause.

FISCAL.

The radicals are playing the game of brag, offering large sums of money on the election of Grant, and whistling to keep their courage up. But information received from all parts of the country by the National Democratic Executive Committee is all to the contrary.

GRAND JURY.

The sanguine patriot could wish, and the prosaic growl growl every day.

A BOMBING.

Delmar's financial affairs [which appears in another part of the JOURNAL this morning—Ed. JOURNAL] have created great consternation in the radical camp. The radical papers refuse to accept the explanation, and the force of it by saying that Secretary McCulloch has "repudiated" it, while the fact is that he simply said he had not authorized it, quite a different thing.

NEW YORK.

Special Dispatch to the Louisville Journal.

NEW YORK, Sept. 30.

A dinner is to be given next week to the members of the National Democratic Executive Committee, at Delmonico's.

Mr. Harlow, Hoffman, Sweeney, and other leaders of the Democracy, McCulloch is receiving numerous calls in Washington Square. It is reported that he has said to the radicals that he has not authorized it, while the fact is that he simply said he had not authorized it, quite a different thing.

William Hendricks, a veteran of 1812 died at Yorkville yesterday.

Edward Cartwright, who stabbed his wife and two other persons, has been proved to be insane, and will be sent to the asylum.

George Emmott, a well-known citizen, was knocked down and robbed in Second avenue, last night, and robbed of his watch and two thousand five hundred dollars in notes, bonds and checks, by two men, who escaped. It is thought they were refugees in female disguise.

Martin Leach, an aged Captain of the New York Militia, was attacked last night by two men, who escaped. It is thought they were refugees in female disguise.

Ellis—near Newark, and brutally beaten. His wife is despaired of. Ellis and Smith are in custody.

The reported explosion of a mine at New York, almost immediately after the explosion, is not credited here.

PHILADELPHIA.

Special Dispatch to the Louisville Journal.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 30.

Great preparations have been made for the convention of soldiers and sailors to meet here to-morrow and Friday.

From present indications the crowd is expected to be large. The soldiers have been relieved from a number of army officers expressing sympathy with the purposes of the convention.

CINCINNATI.

Special Dispatch to the Louisville Journal.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 30.
